The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, February 5. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 11.

Milan, Jan. 29.

THE Contributions to be furnish'd by this Dutchy being regulated, the Troops are going into Quarters in the fortified Places, and the open Country will not be burthen'd with them. All Vagabonds and loose idle Persons are banish'd out of this State; and order is given for an exact List to be taken of all Strangers in every Parish. The rest of the Artillery design'd to be employ'd against our Castle is expected daily: So that we are in hopes to see this Affair, of which there has been so much talk, brought to an Issue. The 27th betimes in the Morning, the Garrison of the Castle made a Sally on the side towards the Gardiners Village; they kill'd 2 German Sentinels, 3 or 4 other Soldiers, set some Houses on Fire, and then retir'd into the Castle with 4 large Cattle and other Booty: 3 or 4 Inhabitants of the Village were kill'd likewise by the Cannon of the Castle, which fir'd to cover the Party that made the Sally. Some Soldiers of the Garrison took this Occasion to desert, and Yesterday a Lieutenant did the like. They write from Florence, that 3 Zealand Privateers had brought into Leghorne 2 French Prizes, laden at Martineco for Marseilles: They expected there 2 other Prizes, one belonging to Trapani, the other a French Ship laden with Corn and bound from Cagliari to Marseilles.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 11.

Letters from Genoa of the 22d of January advise, that 4 French Men of War were arriv'd at Cagliari in Sardignia; that by order of the Viceroy of that Island several Persons were taken into Custody, and 3 sent into Exile to the Island of St. Marguerite, for having enter'd into a Conspiracy to deliver up Sardignia to King Charles III: And that Signior Germano Captain of the St. John Baptist a Genouese Ship, was made a Knight of St. Lazarus by the King of France, in Consideration of his lending him 80000 Livres at 4 per Cent Interest.

Letters from Frankfort of the 6th of January, say, that General Dopf having had a Conference there with the Landgrave of Hesse-Darmstadt, was gone on from thence for Hailbron, thence to proceed to Vienna: That the Advices from Alsace continued to speak of great Preparations made by the Enemy to take the Field before the Germans are ready; and that there being great Cause to apprehend they will open the Campaign with the Siege of Landau, Care was taken to provide that Place, and also Philipsbourg, for Defence.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb 12.

Vienna, Jan. 29. Duke Maximilian of Hanover, the Prince of Darmstad, and General Heyster, use their several Interests at this Court to obtain the Government of Raab, vacant by the Death of Prince Lewis of Baden, and worth 20000 Florins yearly: 'Tis thought Duke Maximilian of Hanover will carry it. The Muscovite Resident Huyssen has offer'd General Heister 100000 Florins a Year, to engage him in the Czar's Service but for 2 Years; and 'tis said that General has desir'd Leave of the Imperial Court to accept this Offer, but in vain.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 11.

...a, Jan. 29. The Czar of Muscovy causes great Endeavours to be us'd here, to engage some Imperial General in his Service; but this Court appear unwilling to give their Consent to it, judging it not adviseable to give any Colour of Discontent at this Juncture to the King of Sweden, whose Designs are secret, and impenetrable yet a while. They write from Presbourg, that General Staremberg will find it very difficult to march from thence down to Buda to joyn General Rabutin; not only because the Malecontents are Masters of several Passes in his Way, but because the continual rainy Weather has made the Roads so deep, that the Artillery can hardly be drawn along.

Stockholm, Jan. 26. M. Olivencrans, Father of the Countess of Liliehroot, and Plenipotentiary of Sweden at the Treaty of Nimueguen, died here the 20th Instant in the 73d Year of his Age.

Hanover, Feb. 4. The 31st of last Month our Electoral Princess was brought to bed here of a Prince,

Brussels, Feb. 7. Some Days ago several thousand Men were detach'd towards Courtray from divers Garrisons in Flanders and Brabant, to cover that Town from any Attempts of the Enemy during the frosty Weather; and Brigadier Kepel went from hence to take on him the Command of them; but a Thaw coming and the Weather continuing open, 'tis suppos'd those Troops will of Course be order'd back agen to their former Quarters. In the mean time we have receiv'd Advice, that this Motion gave the Enemy a great Alarm, and made them detach some Troops towards Maubeuge, out of the Garrisons of Mons, Namur, Charleroy, and other Places, to observe our Men.

EDINBURGH.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Tuesday Jan. 28. The Parliament proceeded 'To consider 'in what manner the several Shires of this Kingdom 'shall choose the Thirty Members appointed to re-'present them in the House of Commons of Great 'Britain. As also in what Manner the several Bor-'rows shall choose the Fifteen Members appointed 'to represent them in the said House of Commons.

And after reasoning thereon, 'A Draught of an 'Act was offered, setling the manner of electing 'and summoning the Sixteen Peers and Forty five 'Commoners to represent Scotland in the Parliament 'of Great Britain.

Which being read it was moved to proceed to consider the Clause of the Draught of the Act 'ap-'pointing the Six smaller Shires thereinmentioned 'to have only three Members to be chosen alterna-'tively.

And it was also moved to remit the same to a Committee: And after reasoning on these Motions, the Vote was stated, approve of the above Clause of the Act or remit. But

fol. D 714

But before voting James Sinclare of Stempſter gave in a Proteſt againſt conjoyning Caithneſs and Bute together, and took Inſtruments thereon.

Then the Vote was put, approve or commit, and it carried approve.

Thereafter it was moved to proceed to conſider 'in what manner the Bourghs ſhall elect their Re-'preſentatives. And after ſome reaſoning thereon, the further Conſideration thereof was delayed till the next ſederunt of Parliament.

Then the Parliament was adjourn'd till to Morrow.

Never Acted but once.

RACHEL ORMSTON, late of Martin's Lane, now Lives in the New-Buildings in Lawrence-ſtreet, near the Church in Great Chelſea, where ſhe continues to Reduce all ſorts of Crookedneſs by the Method invented by the Famous VAN HELMONT, which is the moſt Certain, Safe, and the Eaſieſt Way that has yet been Practiſed or Known, being without thoſe Rugged and painful Racks of Neck-Swings, Iron-Bodice, or other Preſſes that are commonly us'd in ſuch Caſes, which are ſure always to give abundance of Pain and Uneaſineſs, without any Certainty of Cure; wherein if they Fail, as often they do than otherwiſe, (becauſe they depend altogether upon Force, without any probable Reaſon) commonly leave the Patient either Decriped, or Conſumptive, or both, at beſt Unhealthy. But this Method is altogether Eaſy, without any Force, and Conſonant to the Gentle Rules of Nature, and the Tender Bodies of Growing Children; and for that Reaſon has all the Aſſurances of Succeſs that Moral Probability can give, as the Practice has Demonſtrated, inſomuch that ſome have ſcrupled to believe it to be the ſame Children after the Cure is perform'd.

Further Notice is hereby given, by the Original Author of Strops, that they are now brought to ſuch an admirable Perfection, that not only Razors, Penknives, or Lancets, or any other fine cutting Inſtrument can be ſet thereon to a moſt exquiſite fine Edge, but likewiſe poliſhing them to an extraordinary Brightneſs, and are only ſold by Mr. Shipſton at John's Coffee-houſe, in Swithing's Alley, near the Royal Exchange, London, at 1 s. each. with plain Directions, neatly fix'd upon the Back of each Board, to diſtinguiſh them from Counterfeits, as has been often mention'd in the Gazette.
